Form of Proceeding in the Recovery of Small Debts.

Debts may be recovered, in a summary form, before the Justice of Peace Courts, to the extent of £5; and before the Sheriff Courts, to the extent of £8, 6s. 8d.

The first step is to set forth in a complaint or libel, agreeably to a prescribed form [the Clerks of Court will provide all necessary forms,] the origin of the debt, or ground of action, and to cause the same, with a copy of the account, if any, to be served on the defender.

A warrant will, at same time, be obtained to cite witnesses, and, when the case is before the Sheriff, to use arrestments.

The parties may appear either by themselves, or by members of their families, or others whom the Court may authorise; but in no case by persons practising the profession of the law.

If the defender fail to appear, after being cited personally, he will be held as confessed, and judgment will be given against him.

If the defender has not been cited personally, he will receive a second citation; after which, whether given personally or not, he will be held confessed, as above.

But, when decree is given in absence against the defender, he may, before the expiry of the charge, apply for a rehearing on consigning the sums decerned for.

If decree in absence be given against the pursuer, he may, within one month, obtain a rehearing on consigning 2s. 6d. if the case be before the Justices; and the expenses decerned for, if the case be before the Sheriff.

The case will be adjourned, upon the pursuer or defender offering a suitable excuse, or if any witnesses be absent.

If decree be given against the defender, in his personal presence, diligence may proceed against him by arrestment, pouding and sale, and imprisonment—after six free days, if the case be before the Sheriff, and at the end of ten days if before the Justices.

If decree be given against the defender in his absence, pouding, and sale and imprisonment can only follow after a charge of six days if before the Sheriff, and ten days if before the Justices.

The defender, on showing cause, may be allowed to pay the sums decerned for by instalments.

The decrees of the Sheriff may be executed in any county on the same being indorsed by the Clerk of such county.

Any arrestments, used in cases before the Sheriff must be used within sixty days after the warrant is obtained, and renewed every three months; and such arrestments may be loosed on offering sufficient caution, or on showing evidence of absolvitor, or payment, or on consigning the sums demanded, if before decree.

The above forms will apply to any action of forthcoming whatever before the Sheriff or Justices, for making effectual arrestments; but in such actions both the defender and arrestee must be cited to appear in Court on the same day.

Decrees, pronounced in this summary form by the Sheriff, will only be reviewable by the next Circuit Court of Justiciary, or, if there be no Circuit Court, by the High Court of Justiciary, at Edinburgh, on the ground of corruption, or malice, or oppression, on the part of the Judge.

Such decrees, when pronounced by the Justices, will only be reviewable by a reduction before the Court of Session, on the ground of malice and oppression on the part of the Justices; and such reduction will only be competent for one year, and finding caution for costs.

No person will be exempted from the jurisdiction of Justices or Sheriffs in such cases by reason of privilege as a member of the College of Justice.

Regulations and Table of Fares, for the City Porters.

By the Police Act, Section 103, no person is allowed to ply, or work on the streets of the City or liberties, for hire, as a Porter, without first entering his name, and place of residence, in a book for the purpose, in the Town Clerks' Chambers, and without giving Bond for the faithful and honest discharge of his duty, under such penalty as to the Magistrates shall seem proper, and without having a badge or ticket containing his number.

Persons wishing to be admitted as Porters must apply to the Magistrates by petition, stating their place of nativity, age, residence, and former employment, and produce satisfactory certificates as to character. On being admitted, and before being allowed to ply, each Porter must implement the above enactment; and he shall thereafter strictly conform to, and observe the following Regulations:—

1st, He shall renew his Bond at the expiry of three years, and on the decease of the Cautioner, or his removal from the City; which decease or removal, he shall, within eight days thereof, intimate, in writing, to the Town Clerks, and Superintendent of Police, and he shall also in the same manner, and within the said time, intimate his own removal, or change of residence.

2d, He shall wear his badge or ticket conspicuously on the left breast of his coat; which badge shall be of brass, and have inscribed the words, "City Porter," and the number, in the order of his admission; and he shall also have a transcript of said inscription painted legibly on the right side of his barrow or hurley.

3d, He shall not, when unengaged, refuse employment when offered, whether on his station or not; and, if he allege previous employment, he shall, when required, specify the nature and time of his engagement.

4th, He shall not demand higher fares than those specified in the subjoined Table; a copy of which Table, with these regulations, and also a small plan of the City, divided into sections of a quarter of a mile, he shall always have in his possession, and produce to persons employing him, when required.

5th, When stations or districts are allotted to Porters, which shall be done by the Superintendent of Police, the Porters, except on extraordinary occasions, such as the Term time, when they are generally employed at fittings, shall not offer themselves for hire beyond the district assigned to them.

6th, Not more than four Porters shall stand at any corner of a street, or other station; and as one station may be more advantageous for employment than another, they shall be so arranged as that each may have an equal opportunity of obtaining it. Thus, if the south corners of Glassford Street shall be deemed the most favourable, the four Porters who have been longest in the service shall take the west corner—the next four in order shall take the east corner—the next four shall take the west corner of Stockwell Street—and the next four the east corner of Stockwell Street; and, when a vacancy takes place, by the employment, or absence for a quarter of an hour, of any on the more advantageous stations, in this order—the Porter first on the next station, for the day, shall have the right of moving to it—that is to say, the first of the four at the west corner of Stockwell Street to the west corner of Glassford Street—and the first of the four at the east corner of Stockwell Street to the east corner of Glassford Street; or the first at the east corner of Stockwell Street may move to a vacancy at the west corner of Stockwell Street. The same rule shall be observed at the Cross, the south end of Candleriggs, and the north end of King Street; the south end of Buchanan Street; and the north end of St. Enoch Street; and at the other parts of the City where there are intersecting streets, or where there are two or more stations near each other.

7th, Not more than six porters shall resort to, or take up a station at any Coach Office, Inn, or other place at which Stage Coaches arrive. On the arrival of Coaches, the Porter shall stand in a line on the kirb-stones of the pavement; and they shall not leave the kirb-stone, or interfere with passengers' luggage, till singled out and engaged. They shall not importune, call out, or make any signal to passengers for employment; and unless specially selected by passengers, they shall take hire in rotation, each in regular succession.

8th, The object of these arrangements being to insure good order on the one hand, and a fair opportunity of regular employment on the other, the Porters must strictly attend to their operation. For this purpose, they may establish rules among themselves, provided these are sanctioned by the Superintendent of Police, who may alter or rescind them, and provided they are not inconsistent with the regulations hereby enacted. In the event of dispute or misunderstanding among them, the same shall be determined by the Superintendent. And, as a corrective of improper conduct, the Superintendent may remove such as do not comport themselves with propriety, to an inferior station, and promote the next in order.

9th, No Porter shall appear on his station intoxicated; if he does, he shall be removed, and the next in order shall take his place. All Porters are prohibited from standing on the pavement or crossings, to the obstruction or annoyance of the lieges; as also from smoking, when upon their stations, or in any manner giving offence. In general, they are enjoined to conduct themselves orderly among themselves, and discreetly towards the public; to obey the instructions of the Magistrates; and to assist the Police in cases of emergency, and on all occasions when required by the Superintendent, or the Officers acting under his authority.

10th, Porters contravening, or not conforming to these Regulations, will subject themselves to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings; which penalty shall be awarded, and the Regulations enforced, in a summary manner, by the sitting Magistrate in the Council Chambers, or Police Court, who may also dismiss from said employment, and deprive of their badge, such as shall offend.

TIDE TABLE,

From July 1835, till July 1836.

THE tides which take place in narrow seas and ports such as Glasgow, at a considerable distance from the ocean, are merely waves propagated by the diurnal undulation of the great fluid which envelopes the globe. This undulation travels northward, from the Cape of Good Hope, along the western coast of Africa and the shores of Spain and France, till it reaches the entrance to the English Channel. Here the tide wave is trisected; one branch passes up St. George's Channel; another proceeds along the west coast of Ireland; and the third flows up the English Channel. The two former branches unite at the Isle of Man, and form one wave, which proceeds along the western coasts and Islands of Scotland, and winding round the north to the eastern coasts of the Island, proceeds southwards through the German Sea, till it meets the branch coming up the British Channel, off the Kentish Knock. The latter tide is not the same as that which it thus meets from the north, but is a whole tide earlier, if not two, as appears from the fact that the spring tide at Rye is sometimes one tide and sometimes two tides earlier than that at the Nore.

The following Table has been calculated from that given in the Nautical Almanac for the port of London, taking the above-mentioned circumstance into consideration, and from the great attention bestowed on the subject by Mr. Lubbock, there is every reason to suppose it a very near approximation to the truth. Still, from the want of a series of careful and scientific local observations, especially in regard to what is technically termed the establishment of the port, this Table must be considered only as an approximation, in the absence of proper data. It is to be hoped that the Reformed Town Council of Glasgow, who have shown such a praiseworthy anxiety for the improvement of the harbour, will ere long appoint a series of accurate observations to be made on the tides at this port, under the care of a scientific person, so that this city may be connected in a proper manner with the rest of the Island. Observations on the tides have lately been made at 400 places round its coasts, at the command of the Admiralty; but Glasgow, we presume, is not in the list, owing no doubt to its inland situation. This renders it the more necessary for the local authorities to institute such a set of observations at this port, either by means of a proper officer or a self-registering Tide Gauge.

CONCLUDING REMARKS.

In the preceding Table, if a blank line such as — — occurs on any day, there is High Water only once that day. It is to be observed that morning is supposed to commence immediately after midnight, and evening immediately after noon.

As to the effect of the wind on the tide, a gale from the N.E., N. or N.W. causes High Water to take place about half an hour sooner than the time specified, and prevents the tide from rising as high as usual. On the contrary, a gale from the S.E., S. or S.W. causes high water to take place about half an hour after the time specified, and occasions the tide to rise higher than usual. A strong gale from the E. frequently occasions a sudden fall of the tide, but does not affect the time of high water.

The time of high water may be found at any place in the following list, by applying to the time given in the preceding table, the correction opposite to that place, as directed :

Assurances on Lives and Survivorships.

The Rates are peculiarly favourable; and on Lives above 30, lower than those of any Office in the Kingdom, admitting the Assured to a participation of Profits.

BONUS ADDITIONS are declared every fifth year on all Policies effected for £100 or upwards, for the whole term of Life:—if preferred by Policy-holders, the amount so declared, may be applied in Reduction of the future Annual Premiums.

Persons preferring a gross or single Payment upon an Insurance for any given Term, are chargeable in due proportion to the Annual Premium for such Term.

As some Individuals may be desirous of paying their Premiums half-yearly, or quarterly, they may attain that object by effecting two or four Policies, amounting together to the sum they wish to Insure; and in cases where Policies are discontinued, after three or more Annual Payments have been made on the same, the Company will purchase the Interest therein, at an equitable valuation.

Free permission is given to pass and repass betwixt all parts of the United Kingdom; and also in time of Peace, in Steam Packets, or Decked Vessels, from British to Foreign Ports, between the Texel and Brest, both inclusive.

Naval and Military Officers insuring with this Company are not chargeable with any additional Premium, except when called into actual service; and are entitled to the same advantages as others.

No Entrance-Money or Admission-Fees are required, and no Charge is made for Policies, except the Stamp duty thereon. All Claims upon the Company paid within Three Months after the usual proofs.

ANNUITIES granted—present, contingent, and deferred; and ENDOWMENTS for Children secured.
